XV.V.MMXXII
Dominica IV post Pascha

15 May A.D. 2022
Fifth Sunday of Easter

From the Pastor

Dear family,

Our Sunday 11 am Masses will be high Masses until further notice. To better document our faithful attending the Sunday 8 am and 11 am Masses we ask that, following completion of your post Mass thanksgiving prayer, all form up on the church steps for a photo. We will do this every Sunday and ask everyone present to participate each time in order to better capture total numbers attending.

Mary our Mother will help us to remain close to Her Son as she did so faithfully. Let us trust in Him and in His will for us. "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done."
"The Lord is truly risen, Alleluia!"

Collect: Dominica IV post Pascha

Let us pray.

O God, of Whom it cometh that the minds of thy faithful people be all of one will, grant unto the same thy people that they may love the thing which Thou commandest, and desire that which Thou dost promise, that so, amid the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found.

Through Jesus Christ, thy Son our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. R. Amen.

Sunday Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to John
John 16:5-14

At that time, Jesus said unto His disciples: "I go My way to Him That sent Me, and none of you asketh Me: Whither goest Thou?" And so on.

Homily by St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo
94th Tract on John

The Lord Jesus told His disciples what things they should suffer after that He was gone away from them, and then He said: "These things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you; but now I go My way to Him That sent Me." Let us first see whether it had been that He had not told them before this what they were to suffer in time coming. That He had done so amply before the night of the last Supper, is testified by the three first Evangelists, but it was when that Supper was ended that, according to John, He said: "These things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you."

Not a New Mass

by Michael Davies

It would be impossible to lay too much stress upon the fact that St. Pius V did not promulgate a new Order of Mass [Novus Ordo Missae!] The very idea of composing a new order of Mass was and is totally alien to the whole Catholic ethos, both in the East and in the West. The Catholic tradition has been to hold fast to what has been handed down and look upon any novelty with the utmost suspicion. Cardinal Gasquet observed that every Catholic must feel a personal love for those sacred rites when they come to him with all the authority of the centuries:

"Any rude handling of such forms must cause deep pain to those who know and use them. For they come to them from God through Christ and through the Church. But they would not have such an attraction were they not also sanctified by the piety of so many generations who have prayed in the same words and found in them steadiness in joy and consolation in sorrow. ²⁵ The essence of the reform of St. Pius V was, like that of St. Gregory the Great, respect for tradition; there was no question of any "rude handling" of what had been handed down. The Missal of 1570 was indeed the result of instructions given at Trent, but it was, in fact, as regards the Ordinary, Canon, Proper of the time and much else a replica of the Roman Missal of 1474, which in its turn repeated in all essentials the practice of the Roman Church" back to 7th cent. Rite of Christian Initiation - Adult Faith Formation Classes

Classes for adults seeking to enter the Church are scheduled by our faith formation director Aaron Percich. Email him to start formation: aaron.percich@comcast.net. Pick up a copy of weekly Catholic newspaper Tye Wanderer available in church and see the "B" section for a basic adult catechetical resource.

Children's Faith Formation

Our Church teaches that parents are the first teachers in the ways of Faith for all of our young people. No one has more power or responsibility before God for witnessing to our children of the fact of the Lord's Resurrection and His presence in our lives through the Church. Those parents desiring support for religious formation in the home are asked to contact the office.

Families must be attending Sunday Mass throughout the year before children can receive first sacraments.

Holy Sweepers for the week of May 15 and May 22

Percich Family

Holy Sweepers are the families and individuals who graciously keep our church clean and tidy. They clean once a week, for a two week period, on a rotating basis. If you would like to be a
